

Centering
the Humanities Around Investigating the Normalization of Slavery

EUROPEAN WORKSHOP
11 September 2020
Virtual Seminar

Participants

Kathleen Gyssels, University of Antwerp, Belgium
Johan Höglund, Linnaeus University, Sweden
Florence Labaune-Demeule, Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University, France
Gregory B. Lee, University of St Andrews, United Kingdom
Jean-François Manicom, International Slavery Museum, Liverpool, United Kingdom
Julia Prest, University of St Andrews, United Kingdom
Petra Tournay-Theodotou, European University Cyprus, Cyprus
IETT members

PROGRAMME

10.30-12.00: WEBEX Meeting – Introduction session

- Welcome and opening remarks
- Each participant will present their own research work and achievements as well as their academic fields of interest
- Gregory B. Lee and Florence Labaune-Demeule will introduce the CHAINS Project and its objectives: ANR-MRSEI grants and European collaborative projects (Horizon Europe)

13.30-15.00: WEBEX Meeting – Brainstorming session

The participants will

- present their conception of, and objectives for, the CHAINS project as well as explain how they can envisage to actively participate in the project (personal or institutional investment, academic activities or cultural events envisaged, meetings, etc.).
- map out a calendar/schedule for future meetings (workshops, cultural and academic events)
- introduce the international conference scheduled in Lyon, June 17-18 2021